Customer Reviews

I'm only about halfway through this book, but it's a jokebook so that's probably far enough for a review. There were some pretty funny jokes in here, but I noticed there was some overlap and some of the formatting was annoying or poorly done. However, my biggest frustration was the amount of sheer sexism in the book. One does expect a certain amount of playing on gender stereotypes for humor, but some of the jokes were so intensely misogynistic that I was frowning at the book rather than laughing. Again, there were moments I laughed out loud, but I honestly barely gave this a 3/5 rating. Barely.

Have not made it through the whole book yet but this is a HUGE book of jokes. Not all of them are funny but most of them are! I have been enjoying a few pages at a time in order to be able to remember what I read well enough to retell them to some of my family and friends. Invariably there is a great amount of hilarity that ensues. Really like this book and recommend it highly. PLEASE NOTE this is not the type of joke book that you might want to share with young children as there are a good number of adult jokes within.

I laughed and laughed, while reading this book aloud, until I couldn't talk or see for the hysterical tears! This book will cheer anyone back to good health.
