My son is an intermediate-to-advancing trumpet player who was growing complacent playing just music required by his band instructor. I remember listening to my parent's records growing up, one was Herb Alpert. I just loved listening to the upbeat tempo and blaring horns. I have been on a mission to find Herb Alpert sheet music for my son to play. How excited I was to find this compilation of his great songs ALONG WITH a play along CD!!Great price - Great Song Book!!!It has been inspiring to my son to play these songs and he has even increased his practice time from 20 min/day to 40 min/day without being forced!!!!I would highly recommend this song book for trumpet players!

The arrangements in this book are PERFECT!! The very closely replicate the original arrangements and lots of fun to play. I used a couple of these songs in a recent combo gig...and they were well accepted. It's good to remember some of the cool music that took place in the late 60's...I remember how "fresh" and "different" the songs of Herb Alpert and the Tijuana Brass...and The Carpenters were! Fun to bring back those memories with these easy to play and well done backing tracks!

The sheet music was a little above my skill level, but I cannot fault this purchase because of that. Many years ago I bought several "music minus one" and the music seemed easier to read I also have a tendency to play by ear and sometimes don't follow the written that closely. I would not hesitate to recommend this to anyone who is skilled in reading music. You really do feel like you are part of the band. Something I missed when I left high school and had been in band, orchestra, dance band, trumpet trio, pep band.

LOVE this book, great songs, many of which are still be played on the radio and many that made his name well known. Played it through on the first day!

Great Play-along CD. It also gives the player a chance to improvise, but does not over do it. I only wish I knew how to fill in those few rhythm bars!

Good deal

Love it

Thanx
