Customer Reviews

While not a cat lover, I did "parent" my grandcat for a few months while my son was trying to find his way in the world. I have several friends and relatives who have and love their felines fearsely. It was difficult to read the monthly examples on line so I found the book and read some of the poems.....they were really funny and captured the personality of most cats very well. I am sure that those folks I purchased these for will enjoy them even more than I did.

OK calendar. The days are easy to see, but I was expecting lager pictures, like the one shown on th cover. I was disappointed that the actual picture is small, and has a poem that I really didn't think was all that good/

If youre expecting the same greatness as the book, Do not buy this. They couldve made a better selection of poems from the book than the ones on the calendar. The pictures are nice and everything but If youre looking for a laugh go for the book instead, or skip the calendar if you have the book already.

I love cats, I also have OCD and go through nearly a dozen calendars a year because if I have to cross something off, I can't get myself to keep the calendar, it has to be replaced so it still looks neat. Weird, I know, but anyway. I bought this one early in the year and only used it for about 2 months, but I did flip through and look at all the pages. The pictures are really cute. The poems, or whatever they are, are kind of strange, not really what I was expecting by the description. Still an adorable calendar to add to your cat theme.

The physical quality of the product is very good, no complaints there! Thick and sturdy paper, sharp print, there's also space for you to write in notes for each day of the month, which I always appreciate and look for in a calendar (since this was an online product, I didn't know if it would come with this feature but glad it did!). One thing I wished though is that the pictures inside would take up the whole page instead of just a part of the page.

This is the perfect gift for people who love animals (well, cats) but don't like cat-themed gifts. It's actually funny and weird and silly. I buy this for myself every year for my office wall. The poems are fantastic and the pictures are cute.

I absolutely love the 2014 calendar, so, of course, I was thrilled that they made one for 2015! The poetry (and pictures) are purr-fectly feline! Great job!

My mom LOVES this calendar series. It's my second time buying it for her. It's been a tradition that my father gives my mom a calendar for Christmas, and now that he has passed away I have taken up continuing the tradition and am glad I switched from somewhat-generic cat or dog photos to this hilarious series. I even bought the book for my mom. For dog lovers, there's a calendar and book for you too! "I could chew on this," is the title for the respective dog owner.
