Customer Reviews

I purchased this set to teach my children music. My youngest son is autistic and within a week, he could play songs. I was very impressed. It is an excellent resource for teaching your children to read music. The song book includes 20 songs that are Disney favorites. It helped that my son already knew how the songs should sound and he had fun playing them. As an member, I depend heavily on fellow member's reviews for researching potential purchases. I strive to help others by providing informative reviews detailing my personal experiences with the products I purchase. Your positive feedback lets me know I succeeded in doing that, so if this review has helped you, kindly let me know by rating it "Helpful." Thank you!

Santa brought four recorders to our house this year. This is a very good recorder, easy to play without squeaks. Divides into three pieces for cleaning and allowing to adjust the angle of the mouthpiece and last hole. The books are also excellent. The fingering charts in this line are my favorite because they are easy to read. The instruction chapter in the beginning is simple to follow and helps kids gain confidence quickly. It's the same in each book. I am glad we bought all the books because the songs get harder very quickly. With three books we can learn all three easy songs before moving on to the more difficult ones. Great selection of songs too.

Wonderful books for children just starting to learn the recorder. They are entertaining and fun with many Disney favs. Each book has a "getting started" guide with tips on how to hold the recorder, blow into it, play a tone, and a quick intro into reading music, as well as a fingering chart. Great way to introduce your child to a fun and easy instrument. The bundled recorder is about what you'd expect to find in a set like this.

I bought this gift for my 3 year old nephew because he wanted a wind instrument. It is a fun gift because it is not difficult to make noise and they can learn to play it later. I also bought one for my 9 year old son; it is good for all ages. Just be careful because the color shown is not the color you get! I got a yellow one.
